

Skill Builder II

Unique People Services is a non-profit organization in New York City that has several full-time and part-time openings for Skill Builders at our Bronx and Queens locations. This is a direct care position responsible for assuring that all phases of the family members' treatment plans are implemented. These phases involve daily living skill training, personal hygiene, medical needs, recreational and socialization activities, assisting professional staff in the areas of physical, occupational, speech and hearing therapies and addressing dietetic needs. The job responsibilities consist of shift assignments, supervision meetings, and instruction to the Skill Builder I with specific tasks that need to be performed and provide them with any necessary written guidelines.

Qualifications:

Experience as a Skill Builder I for at least 2 years either at UPS or another comparable agency. An Associate Degree or one year college course work substituted for at least one year experience and/or supervisory experience in a previous job responsibility. All candidates selected will be hired on a temporary basis until successfully completing the OMRDD supervisory training course offered by UPS.
